

FRIDGE FACTS

February 4-8

Spelling

We are learning about words with the ar spelling pattern this week. Don't forget to help your child study. There are some study tips attached to the bottom of the spelling list each week.

Test on Friday!

Language Arts

We will read a humorous fiction story called The Signmaker's Assistant. We will use this text to work on text and graphic features, point of view, and questioning.

In writing we are continuing our work with narrative writing. We will work more with creating a fictional story.

Upcoming Dates

Parent-Teacher Conferences are next Monday and Tuesday. Looking forward to meeting with each of you!

No School - Feb. 18th

Math

We will continue with Chapter 6 this week. Our new skill is subtracting with regrouping using zeros. Ask your child to show you what they've learned!
